

STAFF ETHICS

Employees are expected to be professional in their attitude toward students, parents, community members, administrators and fellow workers. By the very nature of the employees' work they come into contact with information which needs to be held in confidence.

[Adoption date: September 25, 1995]