

PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZATIONS

All employees may affiliate with local, county, regional, state and national professional organizations which are so organized to promote and uplift the profession. At no time, however, should such activities conflict with the employee's contractual duties and responsibilities unless approved by immediate supervisor.

[Adoption date: September 25, 1995]