

MAINTENANCE AND CONTROL OF INSTRUCTIONAL MATERIALS

The District's inventory of textbooks represents a substantial investment of school funds. The Superintendent shall establish procedures for efficient management of the District's textbook inventory. Such procedures shall include the accounting for number of textbooks purchased, control of loaned textbooks and measures for recovering the cost of lost or damaged textbooks.

[Adoption date: September 25, 1995]