

EXCHANGE TEACHING

Teacher Exchanges

Purpose

The purpose of teacher exchanges is to secure the benefits of knowledge of education methods and practices in other school districts, and the education benefits of international understanding and good will.

Contracts

The Board may enter into a contract with boards of education or other educational authorities for the exchange of teaching services either inside or outside the United States, and in the performance of such contract may send teachers in their employ to serve in other districts in exchange for similar services from other districts. In this exchange, the Board may continue the teacher on its payroll as though he/she were rendering services in the District.
