

STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT

Good conduct is based on respect and consideration for the rights of others. Students will be expected to conduct themselves in such a way that the rights of others are not violated. The students of the District will conform with school regulations and accept directions from authorized school personnel.

A student who fails to comply with established school rules or with any reasonable request made by school personnel on school property and/or at school-related events will be dealt with according to approved student discipline regulations.

Students will annually receive at the opening of the school year, or upon entering during the year, written information on the rules and regulations to which they are subject. The information will include the types of conduct that will make them liable to suspension or expulsion from school or other forms of disciplinary action. Parents will also be informed of the conduct expected of students. Further, the rules shall be posted in a central location in each school that is subject to the policy.

This policy is adopted by the Board of Education of the Fairfield City School District pursuant to S3313.661, Ohio Revised Code.

Any pupil engaging in the types of conduct, either specifically or generally, like the kinds of conduct listed below is subject to expulsion, suspension, emergency suspension, or removal from curricular or extracurricular activities or transportation pursuant to S3313.661, Ohio Revised Code.
