South students were able to participate in an experience brought to our school by the Boonshoft Museum. PTC paid for Boonshoft to come to our school for students to participate in different types of science lessons. The fourth graders had a lesson on matter through the "Slimy Science" program. In the picture, a few of our fourth graders are experimenting with the slime they created through the chemical change when combining a few ingredients. Thank you South PTC for bringing Boonshoft to our building! →

↑At the Freshman School, Peer Helpers did their annual anti-bullying week. Each day there was a different activity to discuss the harms of bullying and how to stop it. On Monday, we started the warm fuzzy board where students wrote nice notes to each other and staff members. During the middle of the week we watched different videos and discussed several bullying scenarios. Finally, we wrapped up the week with an anti-bullying assembly that was put on by 11th grade students from FHS.

On Monday, an East 3rd grader in Mrs. Dickman's class found a wallet on his bus with $53 in it. Daniel Rogers showed outstanding character when he made the great choice to turn this wallet in to the bus driver. Daniel stands proudly in his red t-shirt surrounded by his classmates as they are all so proud of him. Thanks, Daniel! ↓

↑What an amazing race! So proud of our East Girls on the Run! It was a wet morning, and they all showed up! Vanessa was even in a boot and she still crossed the finish line! We are so grateful for our teachers who coached the girls, and ran with them during their big 5K! Awesome job

Mrs. Hoskinson's fourth grade class at East earned "Neon Day" as a reward for good behavior!

More great examples of awesome character! ↓ to all! Thanks to Mrs. Dickman, Mrs. Lyman grover, Mrs. Bernhardt, Mrs. Phillips, Mrs. Huffman, and Miss Carroccio!
